DATE: 11.26.2017

SPEAKER: Jonathan Bareham

KEY SCRIPTURES: Revelation 3:14-22 (Hebrews 12:5-11, Luke 7:36-50)

NOTES:

I. Introduction:

Jesus is always speaking; therefore, we should always be listening...
...even when his words are hard to hear.

God deserves our wholehearted devotion, not our half-hearted attention.

II. Calling-Out Half-Heartedness:

1. Jesus gets our attention with a rebuke (v15-16).
2. Jesus reveals our true reality (v17).
3. Jesus provides us with a remedy (v18).
4. Jesus confronts the issue for one reason (v19).
5. Jesus is ultimately seeking relationship (v20).

III. Conclusion:

Wholehearted devotion isn't an action or a decision; it's a response to the gospel.

"The world has yet to see what God will do with a man fully consecrated to him."
